Good afternoon,

The attached document was written by ~~two FBI employees~~ and submitted for the Galileo award. ~~It has been selected as a finalist in the competition.~~ Once the DNI announces the winners and finalists of the awards, we would like to be able to post the papers. Please review and let me know if you have any concerns with release.

~~The writers do not yet know that their paper has been chosen as a finalist so please keep that secret until the announcement is made (probably this week or early next week). If you can get a response back by mid-January, I would really appreciate it!~~

Re: Manuscript entitled, "Undercover Nazi"

Dear Mr. Gletty,

This letter is in response to your inquiry regarding the necessity of prepublication review clearance for a proposed book entitled, "Undercover Nazi", pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Following further research of your previous association with the FBI, it has been concluded that you were never employed by the Bureau, therefore the manuscript does not require review by the FBI prior to being published. The pertinent sections of the PRP are as follows:

"As a condition of obtaining employment with the FBI, all employees (and contractors) are asked to sign an employment agreement which indicates that the information they have access to by virtue of their employment is strictly confidential and may not be disclosed without the expressed authorization of the Director or his delegate."

"The Bureau's prepublication review program is based on the obligation of FBI personnel, and persons with whom the FBI contracts, to safeguard sensitive and classified information from unauthorized disclosures."

Re: Manuscript entitled, "The Bricklayer"

Dear Mr. Lindsay,

This letter is in response to the October 28, 2008, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your manuscript entitled, "The Bricklayer."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your manuscript, as presented, for publication.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process. b6 -2

Sincerely,

mailed 1/8/09
